

INTERNATIONAL WOMENS DAY

Check out these inspiraional women!

International Women's Day is an annual, global event. It is for celebrating the many different kinds of achievements of women in our world, including successes in our society, economy, politics and culture.

Emmeline Pankhurst (1858-1928)

Political activist and one of the leaders of the British suffragette movement, which eventually won the right for women to vote. Like many suffragettes, Emmeline was arrested on numerous occasions over the next few years and went on hunger strike herself.

Malala Yousafzai

Malala was only a little girl when she was hurt very badly because some people thought that girls should not go to school. Malala disagreed and spoke out for the right of girls to be educated. Now she helps girls all over the world to go to school

Jane X Luu

Jane has won two of the biggest awards in astrophysics, the Shaw Prize and the Kavli Prize in Astrophysics. She also has an asteroid named after her, 5430 Luu.

