WHO ARE WE?

PASSPORT TO SUCCESS

Passport to Success is a scheme set up by our Enrichment Team at Shireland Collegiate Academy Trust.

The scheme was set up for parents and carers of our students who attend schools within our Trust to recognise outstanding contributions to schools and family life and the local community.

During the national lockdown it is difficult to find activities to keep children entertained. This booklet is packed full of different activities for the Easter break.

APRIL FOOLS' DAY

April Fools' Day is celebrated in most countries on 1st April every year. It is a fun-themed day of mischief where people play practical jokes, pranks, hoaxes and tricks on each other mainly on friends, family, colleagues' classmates and neighbours.

When someone reveals their prank, they shout "April Fool!" and the victims of the jokes are called the 'April fools'.

The Unwritten Rules:

- It should be light-hearted
- The pranks should not hurt anyone
- It should be funny to all involved, including the victim

Traditions in other countries:

- In Scotland, people celebrate 'Gowkie Day' which is named after the gowk, a symbol of a fool.
- In Poland it is a day when people tell each other lots of jokes.
- In France, Italy, Belgium, and French-speaking areas of Switzerland and Canada, the tradition is often called 'April Fish' and people try to attach a paper fish to the victim's back without them noticing.

*April fool's gone
past,
You're the biggest fool at last;
When April fool
comes again,
You'll be the biggest fool then!*

EASTER ROCKY ROAD

Ingredients

- 175g/6oz dark chocolate, broken into pieces
- 125g/4½oz milk chocolate, broken into pieces
- 2 tbsp golden syrup
- 75g/2¾oz unsalted butter, diced
- 160g/5¾oz sugar-coated mini chocolate eggs
- 200g/7oz digestives or rich tea biscuits, broken into pieces
- 75g/2¾oz mini marshmallows
- 50g/1¾oz hazelnuts, roughly chopped
- 75g/2¾oz raisins

Method

Line a 20x30cm/8x12in baking tin with baking paper.

Place the dark and milk chocolate pieces in a large heatproof bowl and add the golden syrup and butter. Set the bowl over a pan of barely simmering water but do not allow the bottom of the bowl to touch the water. Stir from time to time until the butter and chocolate are melted, and the mixture is smooth. Remove from the heat and leave to cool for 5 minutes – if this is too hot the marshmallows will melt.

Cut the chocolate mini eggs in half (leaving a few whole) and set aside one third of the eggs, including the whole ones for decorating. Gently fold in the chocolate eggs, biscuits, marshmallows, nuts and raisins into the chocolate mixture and mix to combine. Spoon into the prepared tin and spread level using the back of the spoon. Scatter with the reserved whole and halved mini eggs.

RAMADAN

Ramadan

Ramadan is a period of ritual fasting. It marks the time when the Quran (their holy book) was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad.

During Ramadan, most Muslims fast. This means they are not allowed to eat or drink during daylight hours. When fasting, they feel hungry and thirsty, which reminds Muslims of people in the world who are less fortunate than themselves. They begin to understand what it must be like for people who don't have much to eat and because of this, many give money to the poor.

Muslims will often have a meal called suhoor before sunrise and another called iftar after sunset.

Some Muslim children will have a Ramadan advent calendar.

The calendar is usually made from fabric or cardboard and will have 29 or 30 doors or pockets to open, each with a number to 30 on. Inside each one is an action to complete. These are usually ways you can help other people and treat them with kindness.

Helping others and doing good deeds is an important part of Ramadan. Sometimes, this means giving money to charities or people that need help. It can also mean being kind, giving your time and sharing what you have.

During Ramadan, Muslims try to give up any bad habits or negative behaviour and try to do more good deeds.

Ramadan Future Family Plans

Just as Muslims go without food and drink during Ramadan, people have had to give up lots of things during lockdown. Muslims make special plans for the end of Ramadan. What special plans would you like to make for when lockdown ends? Use this activity to help make plans!

You will need:

- A jar
- Small pieces of paper
- Jar label
- Ribbon or other items to decorate your jar

What to do:

- Every time you think of something you miss being able to do because of lockdown restrictions, write it on a slip of paper. Put the piece of paper in the jar.
- At the end of lockdown, read out all the things written on the pieces of paper. Arrange times to do all the things you couldn't do during lockdown.
